Ring and Anti Ring Candidates For City Assessor and Collector

William McSain Thinks Tax | Dave Sullivan Believes that Assessment Should Be More Equitable.

Administration Has Made a Good Record.

William McSain, running on the antiring ticket for assussor and collector, like Mr. Sullivan, his opponent, has been previously connected with the offiles.

Mr. McSain came here seven years ago from Chimanha. He is a halive of Tennessee. Up to September of this year he was assistant county amittor and was in charge of auditing the feoffices. Prior to this time he was manager or auditor of three firms in this city. He is now connected with the McMath Printing company.

"I favor a more equitable basis of assessment," said Mr. McSain. "At the present time there are many inequalitiles on the books. Houses in the southern part of the city, for instance, are valued at much higher rates, and connequently pay higher taxes than houses in the northern part of the city.
This brings a hardship on the persons who can least afford to pay higher taxes. The city government should be run on thoroughly business like lines."
